

Ayham N. Al-Mashni

- LL.B (University of Bristol), LL.M Candidate (Oil, Gas and Energy Law).
 - Arbitration Practitioner at Aljazy and Co. / Advocates and Legal Consultants
- Mr. Al-Mashni received his LL.B from the University of Bristol in England in 2013 and has been practicing in Jordan ever since. During his training, he has also enrolled to a part-time LL.M course in Oil, Gas and Energy Law at the University of Derby in England, where he focused on sector related financing structures and concession disputes.
- Mr. Al-Mashni has extensive experience in the fields of international/national arbitration and primary and appellate level litigation. He has advised clients on all major institutional arbitration rules, including ICSID, ICC and DIAC arbitration rules. His areas of specialty are (i) the enforcement of foreign judgments and awards, (ii) the assessment of the 'arbitrability' of disputes (iii) and the analysis of issues relating to jurisdictional conflicts. His current roles, inter alia, preparing complex legal opinions, preparing legal briefs, pleadings, motions and statements to be filed before primary and appellate courts, and representing several clients before arbitral tribunals.
- Mr. Al-Mashni trained at Ali Sharif Zu'bi Advocates and Legal Consultants and has then joined our practice in 2015 as an arbitration practitioner.

Email:ayham.almashni@aljazy.com